The CSI Companies Raise More Than $58,000 for Local Wish-Granting Organizations

CSI Gives Back Initiative Fully Supports 10 Wishes for Area Youth.

JACKSONVILLE, FL (December 15, 2012) - An Alaskan Cruise, a trip to London for the Summer Olympics, an appearance at the Ellen Show in L.A. are all once in a lifetime opportunities for children with life-threatening illnesses. This year, CSI was proudly able to fully fund these wishes and more throughout each of the markets it serves through its CSI Gives Back campaign.

"When I look back on 2012, nothing was more rewarding for us than making a difference in the lives of these kids," said Rafe Sanson, CEO of the CSI Companies. "From employees and families baking cookies, planning fundraisers and even setting up payroll deduction, we really embraced this partnership companywide."

The campaign included partnerships with Dreams Come True of Jacksonville, Make-A-Wish Foundation of South Florida, A Wish With Wings, Children's Dream Fund, New Hope for Kids, Make-A-Wish of Middle Tennessee and Soar With Grace, a pediatric brain tumor foundation.
